Topic: Down at the Farm

Story of the week: Old MacDonald had a farm

This term our topic is 'Down at the Farm' here are a list of books we would of covered along with some activities linking to the topic for you to complete at home. Please continue to upload any pictures or videos to your child's 2Build profile, we check them daily! We really do enjoy seeing how busy you all are and will send you messages back.

Please continue to read and share stories as much as you can. For this week can you focus on Old Mac Donald had a farm.

If you do not have a copy of the book you could use youtube- Old MacDonald had a Farm - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2DAPD25FFMI>

Can you try to sing the song daily? You can change the words in the song to make it your own. E.g Old Mac Donald had a zoo, E, I, E, I, O and in that zoo he had a lion...

2YO – draw pictures of the animals and tell your grown up what you have done.

Nursery - Don't forget if you can, label your animals and practice your writing.

Paper Plate Pig

Design and make your favourite farm animal like the ones above. Pinterest has lots of great ideas.

Using playdough can you make different farm animals? Tell your grown-up which noises they make? What colour are they and were you able to use the correct colours?

Thank you for your continued support. We look forward to seeing your work.

Mrs Jordan and Mrs Bell

Practise counting with any farm animals you have at home, if you don't have farm animals, count your toys or fingers? Can you sort your toys into groups e.g all sheep and compare the different amounts you have? Send us a video of you practising your numbers.

Nursery – Write a list of animals that often live on farms. Do you know what their babies are called?

Make your own instruments, using plastic bottles/containers. Simply add anything to them to make different sounds. You can use, Water, rice, pasta, wool. Why not sing Old MacDonald had a farm? Can you sing using a loud voice? Quiet voice?
